

Indian Law Society's Centre for Arbitration and Mediation, Pune

Announces

Winter School Programme in Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanisms

20th to 28th April 2023

About the Institute

The ILS Centre for Arbitration and Mediation (ILSCA) was established on 3rd December 2016 by the Governing Council of the Indian Law Society with the primary aim of providing facilities for ad-hoc and also institutional arbitration and mediation, both in domestic as well as international spheres, alongside conducting training programmes and courses centred around ADR.

To achieve this aim, we have raised a state-of-the-art infrastructure situated in a separate designated building with facilities which help us achieve our commitment to promote a cordial and rational settlement of disputes between parties through arbitration as well as other methods of dispute resolution. Along with the institutional set up, we also provide training through workshops, training programs and courses. These are offered to members of the legal fraternity, students and other professionals who have an interest in arbitration and mediation. We collaborate with other professional institutes, wherever necessary, for accrediting Arbitrators and Mediators.

In a short span since its establishment and active functioning, ILSCA has emerged as a popular venue for the conduct of arbitral and mediation proceedings, as well as a Centre with immense learning opportunities and training programmes.

About the Winter School

The ILSCA is pleased to announce its first Winter School Programme in Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanisms. The Programme has been designed to introduce the participants to the world of ADR – Arbitration, Conciliation, Mediation and Negotiation – and provide them with the opportunity to learn from stalwarts in the field, and also meet like-minded individuals during the course of the programme in order to help widen their horizon of understanding ADR.

The school will feature an interactive eight-day programme introducing participants to ADR, related practice development and career opportunities. Young practitioners and graduate students working in the field of dispute resolution will particularly benefit from this programme. The course aims to be the pathway of introduction to the world of ADR, and help participants realise the future of ADR, both in India and globally.

The course has been designed for students of the law, other student and professionals intrigued about ADR, and wishes to achieve a good understanding of the concepts of ADR.
